

CAMBRIDGE BOOKS ONLINE

GUIDED TOUR

An Introduction

1. Homepage
2. Browsing Content
3. Search Results
4. Advanced Search
5. The Book Page
6. Book PDFs
7. Help

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Cambridge Books Online - An introduction

Cambridge University Press is one of the largest and most prestigious academic publishers in the world and we are widely respected as a world leader in publishing for subjects as diverse as astronomy, Shakespeare studies, economics, mathematics and politics.

Cambridge Books Online contains over 20,000 titles and offers predefined or bespoke collections of content within a richly functional, fully searchable online environment.

Access to Cambridge Books Online is available to libraries worldwide under a number of attractive and flexible models, ensuring instant access to the best research available.

With online access to unique, indispensable and extensive scholarly content, Cambridge Books Online will offer all levels of user a new dimension of access and usability to support and enhance research.

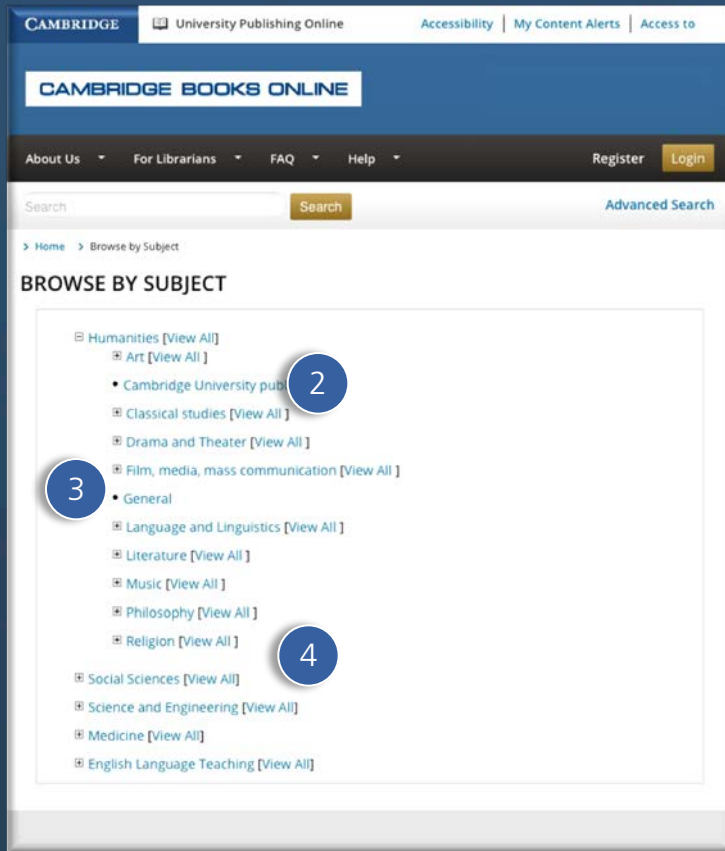

1. Homepage

Logging in and navigating content

1. You can log into the site by either using your regular login details or via the Athens or Shibboleth portals.
2. Once logged in, or recognised by IP, your institutional logo and name will appear in the top right of all pages.
3. From the homepage, you can perform a quick search across all titles.
4. You can refine your search further using the advanced search function.
5. Use the Browse by Subject option to go directly to subject and sub-subject lists.
6. Go straight to featured titles or collections via the quick links here.
7. View the latest titles to be added as well as forthcoming titles by downloading titles lists.

2. Browsing Content

Browsing by subject

1. Click on the 'Browse by Subject' link on the top right of the homepage to browse all titles on the site.
2. Once on the browse page, you can then drill down into each subject field in more detail.
3. Clicking the + symbol expands the chosen subject or field, showing sub-subjects.
4. By clicking 'View All', all titles in the particular field will be shown.

3. Search Results

You can search for content using the quick search or the advanced search functions on the homepage.

1. When the search results display, there are many tools you can use to manage your results:
 - Sort by relevancy, title, author, print publication year and online publication year.
 - Change number of results shown on the page
 - Results can be viewed as books or chapters
 - Boolean, proximity and stem searching is supported
2. Use the 'Show search' function to view your original search criteria and to amend as required
3. Save your search results as an RSS feed.
4. The green P indicates that your institution has full access to this title.

The screenshot displays the Cambridge Books Online search results interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'About Us', 'For Librarians', 'FAQ', and 'Help'. Below this is a search bar with a 'Search' button and an 'Advanced Search' link. The main content area shows 'SEARCH RESULTS' for the term 'fish'. A 'Show Search' button is highlighted with a blue circle labeled '2'. The search results list includes a book titled 'Fauna Boreali-Americana; or, The Zoology of the Northern Parts of British America'. A green 'P' icon next to the title is highlighted with a blue circle labeled '4'. Below the search results, there are filters for 'Content Type', 'Publisher', and 'Subject'. A 'Save Query as RSS Feed' button is highlighted with a blue circle labeled '3'. The page also shows pagination and sorting options.

4. Advanced Search

Using the advanced search function

The advanced search link is available on every page of the site and allows you to select specific criteria to refine your search.

1. Select 'limited to your access' to only search titles for which you have access.
2. Use the first dropdown to select the parameters of your search.
3. Use the second dropdown to further refine your search rules by including and excluding keywords.
4. Type in your keyword or phrase and if you would like to add more search terms simply click the 'More choices' button to add a new row.

The screenshot shows the 'ADVANCED SEARCH' page on the Cambridge Books Online website. The page has a blue header with the Cambridge logo and navigation links. Below the header is a search bar with a 'Search' button and a link to 'Advanced Search'. The main content area is titled 'ADVANCED SEARCH' and contains a form with the following elements:

- A message: 'Please input search parameters in search fields. * Empty search fields will not be included in the search.'
- Four checkboxes: 'Cambridge Books Online' (checked), 'Cambridge Library Collection', 'Cambridge Journals Online', and 'Limited to Your Access' (checked). A blue circle with the number '1' is positioned over the 'Limited to Your Access' checkbox.
- A search row with a dropdown menu set to 'Anything', a dropdown menu set to 'Contains', a text input field containing 'Fish', and a dropdown menu set to 'AND'. A blue circle with the number '2' is positioned over the first dropdown menu.
- A second search row with a dropdown menu set to 'Online Publication Date', a dropdown menu set to 'Is between', and two text input fields containing '20110101' and '20130101'. A blue circle with the number '3' is positioned over the second dropdown menu.
- Four buttons: 'Search', 'Clear All', 'Fewer Choices', and 'More Choices'. A blue circle with the number '4' is positioned over the 'More Choices' button.

5. The Book Page

Viewing content on the book page

1. The centre of each book page contains tabs showing a book description, table of contents and list of references.
2. Click on a PDF icon in the table of contents to view the specified chapter.
3. The book tools provided on all book pages include:
 - 'Buy the book' - takes you to the title's print version in the online catalogue
 - 'Find this book in a library' - searches the OCLC WorldCat database
 - 'Citation Tools' - including how to cite and citation export functions
 - 'Email link to this book' and 'Link to this book' - share a link to this book via your email or social network account
4. You can refine your search further using the 'Search within this book' function.
5. If you do not have access to a title, click 'Recommend to a Librarian' to send details of the title to the account admin.

The screenshot shows the Cambridge Books Online interface for the book 'Eruptions that Shook the World' by Clive Oppenheimer. The page is divided into several sections:

- Navigation and Search: Includes 'About Us', 'For Librarians', 'FAQ', 'Help', 'Register', and 'Login' links. A search bar is located at the top, with a 'Search within this book' option.
- Book Information: Displays the book title, author (Clive Oppenheimer), publisher (Cambridge University Press), print publication year (2011), online publication date (June 2011), and various ISBNs (Online, Hardback, Paperback). It also includes the Book DOI and subject categories.
- Book Tools: A sidebar on the right offers options such as 'Buy the book', 'Open URL Link Resolver', 'Find This Book in a Library', 'Citation Tools', 'Email Link to This Book', and 'Link to This Book'. There are also buttons for 'Recommend to a Librarian' and 'Print This Page'.
- Table of Contents: A tabbed interface at the bottom shows the 'Table of Contents' section, which lists chapters with corresponding page numbers and PDF icons for each chapter.

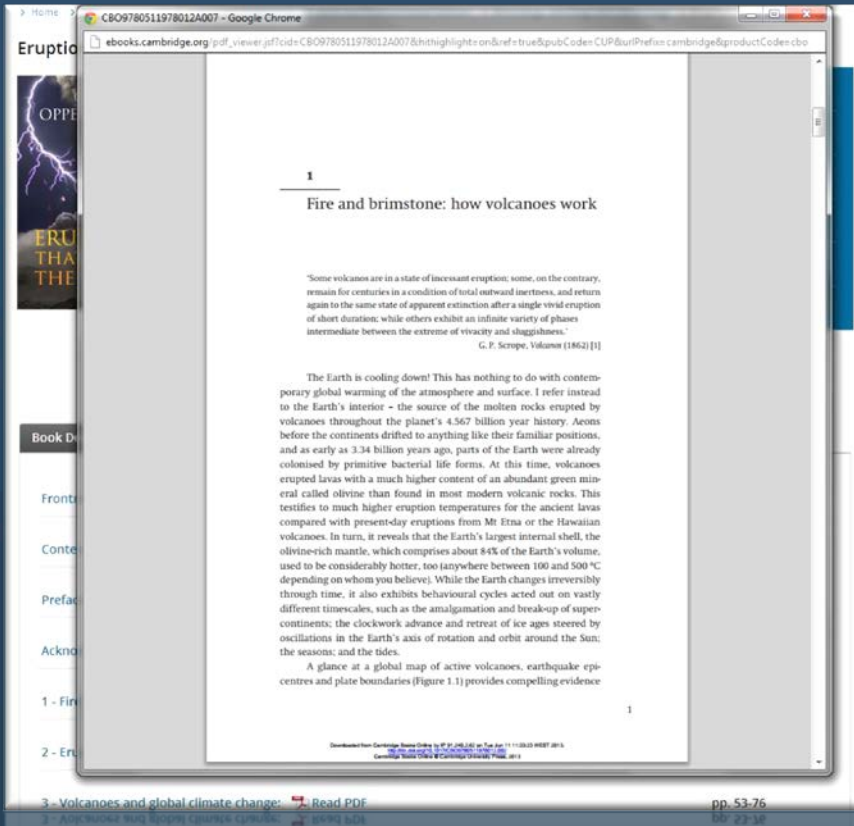

Chapter	Page Range
Frontmatter	pp. i-iv
Contents	pp. v-viii
Preface	pp. ix-xiv
Acknowledgements	pp. xv-xvi
1 - Fire and brimstone: how volcanoes work	pp. 1-21
2 - Eruption styles, hazards and ecosystem impacts	pp. 22-52
3 - Volcanoes and global climate change	pp. 53-76
4 - Forensic volcanology	pp. 77-108
5 - Relics, myths and chronicles	pp. 109-139

6. Book PDFs

Viewing content within PDFs

All content on the site is contained within PDFs that are split by chapter.

1. If you have access to a title the PDF icon will show in colour. If you do not have access the icons will be greyed out
2. Click on the relevant chapter PDF to view the content. This will display in a separate window.
3. If you have reached the PDF via a search or if you have used the 'Search within this book' function 'hit highlighting' will be in place by default
 - 'Hit highlighting' highlights the search terms you have specified, within the PDF
4. To switch this function off, close the PDF and click 'turn off hit highlighting' below the book tools and then reopen the PDF
5. To search the PDF for specific keywords click Ctrl and F on your keyboard and type your keyword into the search box

7. Help

The Americas

For price quotes and trial requests contact: online@cambridge.org
For Customer Services and other queries:

Toll-free: 800-872-7423
Toll-free (Mexico): 95-800-010-0200
Phone: (845) 353-7500
Fax: (845) 353-4141

Cambridge University Press
100 Brook Hill Drive
West Nyack, NY 10994-2133

For technical support: techsupp@cambridge.org

United Kingdom and Rest of World

For price quotes and trial requests contact: academicsales@cambridge.org
For consortia and multi-site licence pricing contact us on the email address above so we can put you in touch with your local sales office.

For Customer Services and other queries:

Phone: +44 (0) 1223 326098
Fax: +44 (0) 1223 325152
Email: onlinepublications@cambridge.org

Cambridge University Press
The Edinburgh Building
Shaftesbury Road
Cambridge
CB2 8RU